has more significance to a young man than the amount of his credit at the bank.

It has a collateral benefit in establishing his credit, a it shows the banker that the young man is able to build up a deposit out of a portion of the earnings of his business. The man identified as a bank depositor can always avail himself of opportunities better than the man with no surplus and no banking credit established.

Justice Robb, of the Court of Appea versing the decree of the lower court, holding that the title to valuable real noiding that, the title to valuable restate in M Street Northeast, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth Streets, to be vested in Elmyra M. Goodman, Margaret E. Jones, and Mary J. Boteler. The Appellate Court holds that one-half interest in the property belongs to Elisa V. Wrenn and Eva Isabelle Schmidt. The parties to the controversy were heirs of Mrs. Mary McRean, who died in 1903. The title to the property came into dispute in 1905, when suit was filed by Elmyra M. Goodman and others to the property.

A demurrer was filed by the halfsisters which was sustained by the lower court, but an appeal was reversed. After the filing of answers and the taking of testimony the Equity Court found in favor of the plaintiffs, which ruling was set aside yesterday by the DECISION IS UPHELD.

Court of Appeals Sustains Breaking of Simme Will.

The judgment of the lower court, holding that certain bequests to charitable nstitutions in the will of Rosa G. Simms who died in December, 1909, are invalid, was affirmed by Chief Justice Shepard, of the Court of Appeals, yesterday.

The bequests in question were $300 each to the Little Sisters of the Poor, the Home of the Incurables, Providence Hospital, St. Vincent's Female Orphan Asylum, and $250 to St. Ann's Infant Asylum. A bequest of $1,000 to Frances McIntyre is also disallowed. The ower court held that the $3,250 should go to Mary Antoinette Holtzman and Sa-bina Miller, sisters of the testatrix.

represents a substantial increase also over October, 1911. The properties in the copper mountain district on which British Copper Company recently exercised options are developing beyond the expectations of the engineers and of the management, it is expected that the production from them will be very large and the ore of an excellent grade.

Of the 900,000 pounds cape gold which reached the London market to-day 200,-000 pounds was secured for India and the balance was purchased by the Bank

The underlying cause of the break in Beet Sugar was technical weakness caused by pool liquidation which has been going on for a considerable time past. All that was needed by the bears was a pretext for a break and this was furnished by the near approach of the election with the probability that the sugar tariff would be reduced whether the victory went to the Democrats or to the Republicans.
